Real western adventure unfolds in a setting of 25,000 acres of spectacular open desert. Enjoy the beauty of the private trails at Fort McDowell Adventures—home to the Yavapai Nation. The Stables house their private collection of beautiful, trained horses. You'll explore the desert, cross a river, and wonder at the splendor of this pristine desert on horseback during your hour and a half ride. Bring: Pants, Closed Toed Shoes, a hat and sunglasses are recommended.

Sonoran Desert Jeep Tour 1:30 – 5:30 PM

Go where roads don't go! This open-air Jeep tour will be led by a highly experienced and knowledgeable Naturalist-Guide who will make your desert experience unforgettable. You will marvel as they answer questions such as: Is there really a jumping cactus? Is it true that you can drink water out of a cactus like John Wayne did? Are there really roadrunners living here? How did the ancient Indians thrive in this harsh climate? Your guide will make it fun for you to understand the intricate balances of this desert ecosystem as you explore its geologic, archaeological and botanical history on a wild off-road adventure. Bring: Closed toed shoes and a hat.

Taliesin West Insights Tour 1:45 PM – 5:00 PM

Ask the average citizen to name a famous American architect and you can bet that their answer will be Frank Lloyd Wright. Wright gained such cultural primacy for good reason: he changed the way we build and live. Designing 1,114 architectural works of all types—532 of which were realized—he created some of the most innovative spaces in the United States. With a career that spanned seven decades before his death in 1959, Wright's visionary work cemented his place as the American Institute of Architects' "greatest American architect of all time. Today you'll be drawn closer to Frank Lloyd Wright's world on Taliesin West's signature Insights tour. Visit Wright's private quarters and living room, the gracious Taliesin West "Garden Room," the drafting studio, the Music Pavilion, the Cabaret, and more. Bring: Comfortable walking shoes, sunblock.
